JUVENILE FOR MADDEN

His Ultimus Colt Runs Away From Youngsters in Race Down Chute.

By HENRY V. KING.

The largest crowd that ever saw a horse race in the East was at Belmont in the history of the course every seat 195 in the huge grand stand was occupied and the clubhouse enclosures were filled to capacity. The lawn, which stretches for nearly a quarter of a mile, was a pushing, shoving mass of humanity. More than 5,000 automo-

John E. Madden's McKee, a bay colt by Ultimus, won the Juvenile handly by a length and a half, with Mrs. Payne Whitney's Cherry Pie second, two lengths in front of her other good colt. Canaque, which was third.

Harry Payne Whitney's Rocket, a three-year-old unsexed son of Broomstick, won the Toboggan by a length and a half from Harry F. Sinclair's Dunboyne. Mr. Whitney's other colt, Tryster, took the third end of the purse. Although the Juvenile was much the richer and older stake, it was the Toboggan which attracted most attention. This was a six furlong handicap for three-year-olds and upward. For it eighteen of the fastest horses in America were named overnight to start, but eight of them were withdrawn, leaving ten veritable whirwinds to battle for the $10,000 purse. the $10,000 purse.

After George W. Loft's On Watch had been unruly at the post for several minutes Mars Cassidy sent the field away aligned. Like a shot out of a rocket Rocket sped to the front. He displayed a terrific burst of speed in the first few jumps, and before the cry of "They're off!" had died out he was stepping along two lengths in front. To a majority of the throng it seemed as if he had "beat" the gate. But he hadn't. Little Jockey Penman had the young gelding on his toes as the barrier went up and rushed him along and into a commanding lead in the first fifty yards.

Rounding the bend Dunboyne worked his way out of a pocket and began to move up into a contending position, while Reprisal and Smoke Screen began to drop back. Entering the homestretch Rocket was still in front and moving easily, although the timer's clock was testifying to an exceptionally fast pace. When well straightened out for home Dunboyne made his last bid for a lead, it was a bold one, but it was not one whit bolder or stronger than was Tryster's. Neither was it strong enough to get within striking distance of Mr. Whitney's three-year-old. Rocket still had plenty of speed in reserve, and when Pennan began hand riding him at the final furlong heresponded garnely and went on to win rather easily.

They measured strides until the final jump, where Dunboyne under a strong ride by Sande stuck his head home in front. A length and a half further back finished On Watch. He was stepping along at a fast pace and with another furlong to go would have played a much more prominent part in the race.

Rocket ran a magnificent race. He covered the six furlongs in the exceptionally fast time of 1:11, only two-fifths of a second behind the record. He carried only 105 pounds and at the weights was probably the best in the race. But Dunboyne, On Watch and Careful didn't get an opportunity to do

Estimates of the throng varied. Men accustomed to figure crowds were certain that more than 50,000 were present. Others said that estimate was low. The management was unable to say how many passed through the gates. There were 50,000 programs printed and before the horses went to the post for the opening event they were sold out.

Many men who saw the recent Derby at Churchill Downs said the gathering at Belmont Park yesterday was as large if not larger than the one that saw Morvich win the Kentucky classic.

And although many of those at the track failed to pick a winner almost all agreed that they had seen some great racing. The sport as a whole was the best of the local season. The Juvenile and the Toboggan were won by real good horses.

went up and rushed him along and into a commanding lead in the first fifty yards.

While Rocket was speeding along in front there was a lot of rough and tumble and foul riding in the rear. There also was some timid riding in the rear, especially by Jimmy Butwell on Walter J. Salmon's Careful. He went away pulling up, and continued to pull up almost all the way home. Dunboyne was knocked back soon after the start and lost several lengths. On Watch was struck and nearly toppled over.

McKee's stable mate, Heremon, was the first to show in front after the field got going up the chute. Cherry Pie was econd and Max Hirsch's Bo McMillan third. The remainder were strung out all over the track. When the grand stand was reached McKee was in front and running easily, while Cherry Pie and vas second and Canaque third, and doing their utmost to keep their positions. In the final furiong McKee drew away from Canaque, who had made up a lot of lost ground and was struck and nearly toppled over.

Meyers intends to throw the gage squarely at Gierschevski. The P. S. A. L. rules forbids any boy's running in both hurdle races. As a result Meyers says he will run only in that event in which Gierschevski elects to start. This most likely will be the 120-yard high hurdles, and a red hot race is promised. Purple Tossers Pile Up Seven Runs in Fourth.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., May 30.—
Williams downed Amherst by a score of $ to 5 in the annual Memorial Day baseball battle between the ancient rivals here to-day. The fourth inning saw the Purple putting the victory on ice, for hits bunched with a couple of passes and errors in this session resulted in seven runs being sent home. Aside from this disastrous stanza Leets, the Amherst twirler, was effective.

For Williams Gregory held the visitors without a hit up to the seventh. Amherst touched him up sharply in the concluding frames, but the home team held its lead. The fielding of Ward, Richmond and Bixby featured for the Purple nine. Booth's hitting was a bright spot in Amherst's showing.

-1, 6-4. The exhibition overshadowed in in-The exhibition overshadowed in interest the matches in the Eastern New York State champlonship, which was brought down to the semi-final round. A gallery of nearly a thousand tennis devotees had gathered to watch the stars in action, and the exhibition that was staged furnished a pyrotechnical tennis treat. It was a match of speed, hard hitting, abundant volleying and clever maneuvering from start to finnish, with the tide shifting frequently.

Richards and Hardy both shone brilliant in the opening set, the former with his dazzling volleys and half volleys, the latter with his crafty choice of strokes and control. After the first two games had been divided on service, the Richards-Hardy combination struck its stride quickly, and ran seven games in a row. Richards was blocking on all sides with wonderful precision and was handling lobs with decisive accuracy. Hardy supported him ably, placing with rare judgment and favoring a well timed short return that just cleared the net. Their errors at that stage were so few as to me time within a point of dropping a set to Kenneth D. Fisher. return that just cleared the net. Their errors at that stage were so few as to be negligible.

It was doubly surprising, therefore, to find a complete form reversal in the second set. With Hunter leading the attack the American-Japanese combination began forcing the pace, took more chances and were fortunate to find their daring rewarded. Hunter shot one sizzling drive after another into the opposing mid-court and the ball landing at the feet of either Richards or Hardy proved difficult to handle. Shimizu aided materially with his customary brilliant getting and with a well directed lob that often forced Richards and Hardy away from the net. To add to their troubles both Richards and Hardy began netting the ball with alarming frequency and one game after another slipped away from them until their rivals had counted eleven in a row. By that time Shimizu and Hunter had taken the second set at 6—1 and were leading 5—0 in the third.

American Tennis Champion Starts British Campaign on Chiswick Courts.

ANILA, P. I., April 36 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Public boxing exhibitions by women are objectionable to John W. Green, chief of police of Manila, who would prohibit them for the sake of propriety and for "anatomical and physiological" reasons. His views are set forth in a letter to the Mayor, who referred the matter to the City Council with a request that an ordinance be passed prohibiting such exhibitions.

Since the passage of a law by the recent Legislature permitting boxing without specifying that it will be confined to the male sex. a number of bouts in which women were the principals are said to have taken place. Tilden Adds Philadelphia

Dr. King's net game proved too strong for Morton Bernstein, who found his choicest drives voileyed back for placement. Herbert Manchester played skilful tennis against Elliott Binzen in the last of the fifth round matches, but speed and youth prevailed after a sharp tussle. The score was 10-8, 6-3-mighty interesting tennis all the way. In reaching the fifth round Manchester earlier in the day scored a well earned victory over Manfred Goldman, 6-2, 2-6, 6-4.

The first of the semi-finals, that between Dr. King and Alfred Hammett, is to be played to-morrow afternoon, the scoond between Francis T. Hunter and Elliott Binzen on Friday afternoon, and the title round on Saturday. The summary: PHILADELPHIA, May 30 .- William T. Philadelphia, May 30.—William T. Tilden 2d, world's tennis champion, added another to his long list of net titles to-day by taking the championship of the Philadelphia district from Wallace F. Johnson, the chop stroke expert, after a hard fought five set battle. The scores were 2—6, 2—6, 6—4, 6—2, 6—2. In the first two sets Tilden appeared unable to cope with Johnson's chop stroke and freak bounds, but at the beginning of the third set the champion came back strong and tired Johnson out. Johnson was runnerup to Tilden last year in the national championship tournament. FOURTH ROUND.
